COVER LETTER

序言

Dear IACP members and friends,

At the beginning of the Chinese New Year, the International Association for China Planning (IACP) board of directors would like to send our best wishes to you in the New Year!

In 2018, IACP has organized many academic events and made substantial achievements. On June 27 and 28, the First International Conference on Harmonious Development and Sustainable Habitat in China was successfully held at Yunnan University. Fourteen international planning experts were invited to discuss with Chinese scholars on international collaboration on various urban planning topics such as sustainable habitat, ecological safety and historic heritage. Between June 30 and July 1, 2018, the 12th IACP Annual Conference, was held in Xi'an University of Architecture and Technology. The conference theme was "Globalization vs Regionality: International Experience and China Practice in the New Era". Basing on the strong regional characteristics of Xi'an, the event attracted scholars all over the world to discuss issues, challenges, and experiences in urban and rural planning and development in China. In addition, the 6th International Forum of Urban and Rural Planning Dean/Chair was held in Xi'an with deans and department heads of planning schools discussing the topics of planning education and practice, international exchange, curriculum, and integration of research. On Oct 26, the IACP annual business meeting was held at the ACSP conference in Buffalo, New York. In meeting, we reported IACP's activities and achievements, as well as the financial status, sharing the good news that the IACP account is in good standing and membership has steady growth.

In 2018, the IACP board members continued with efforts of promoting planning research in China. The IACP board members have visited and presented at more than twenty universities in China, sharing the most recent research methods and results. The members have also organized special issues in international

在新春之际，国际中国规划学会给您拜年，祝您新年里学业进步，工作顺利，诸事如意！

在2018年，学会组织了丰富多彩的学术活动并取得了丰硕的成果。2018年6月27日至28日，第一届中国城乡融合发展与理想人居环境国际研讨会在云南大学举行。来自美国、英国和香港地区高校的14位规划界国际专家参加了这次研讨，专家们对于人居环境、生态安全、历史遗产保护等议题的讨论深化了国际合作与交流。2018年6月30日至7月1日在西安建筑科技大学举办了第十二届国际中国城市规划学会（IACP）年会。会议以“全球化VS地域性：新时期的国际经验与中国实践”为主题，以具有强烈地域特征的西安为基地，吸引世界各地学者共同探讨中国城乡发展的经验，挑战及应对，以及发展方向。会议同时还举行了第六届城乡规划院长/系主任国际论坛。学者们围绕规划教育与实践的结合、规划学界的国际交流与教学实践、规划学科设置与人才培养、规划教学研究四个主题展开了研讨。2018年10月26日在纽约州布法罗市召开的美国规划院校年会上，学会举行了会员大会并向会员通报了学会财务状况良好，会员数量持续增长。

过去的一年里，学会理事会成员继续努力推动中国的规划研究。理事会成员访问了二十多所大学，为各校师生带去最新的研究报告。理事会成员及朋友们持续在国际知名学术杂志中推出专栏。这些专栏更好的为华人规划学者提供了一个在国际学术舞台上展示研究成果的机会。

期待2019年与您在成都西南交通大学年会相见，共襄盛举！

journals, providing opportunities for Chinese scholars to disseminate their research on China's urbanization. 此致,

Finally, we would like to highlight our appreciate for your support, with special thanks to the chairs and members of current and previous boards. Your active engagement with the IACP are the key to its success.

Dr. Yu Xiao, 城市研究和规划系副教授, 波特兰州立大学

Dr. Yu Xiao 在2018年加入波特兰州立大学任教。Dr. Xiao之前任教于德州农工大学。她的主要研究方向是自然灾害对城市的影响。Dr. Xiao是Learning from Earthquakes (LFE) Committee of the Earthquake Engineering Research Institutes (EERI)的委员, 她合作领导了EERI里一个由工程师和社会科学家组成的跨学科研究团队进行灾后重建相关的研究。Dr. Xiao 于2018年发表了文章 "Guidance on Conducting a Systematic Literature Review"。

Dr. Yu Xiao, Associate Professor, Portland State University

Dr Xiao joined the Nohad A. Toulon School of Urban Studies and Planning at Portland State University as Associate Professor after her nine years of employment at Texas A&M University.

Facing various types of disasters, such as a possible 9.0 subduction zone earthquake, landslides, floods, and wildfires, the Portland region is a living laboratory for advancing her research on community disaster resilience. Dr. Xiao continues to serve on Learning from Earthquakes (LFE) Committee of the Earthquake Engineering Research Institutes (EERI), a U.S. national, nonprofit, technical society of engineers, geoscientists, architects, planners, public officials, and social scientists. She is co-chairing an interdisciplinary group composed of engineers and social scientists to develop data collection strategies for EERI's post-earthquake reconnaissance in order to monitor business impact and recovery as an approach to understanding community resilience.

Dr. Xiao published a paper with her doctoral student Maria Watson (currently on the job market) on "Guidance on Conducting a Systematic Literature Review" in the Journal of Planning Education and Research. Literature reviews establish the foundation of academic inquiries. However, in the planning field, we lack rigorous systematic reviews. This article categorized a typology of literature reviews, discussed steps in conducting a systematic literature review, and provided suggestions on how to enhance rigor in literature reviews in planning education and research. Please check it out.

Nick R. Smith is Assistant Professor of Urban Studies at Yale-NUS College in Singapore. Recent research outputs include "Planning Powers as Property Rights in Contemporary China," published in the Journal of Planning Education and Research, and "One Village, One Product: Agro-Industrial Village Corporatism in Contemporary China," published in the Journal of Agrarian Change. Over the past year, Smith has also been at work on a forthcoming special issue of the International Development Planning Review, which looks at emergent community development and planning practices in China, and on a book manuscript that investigates China's urban-rural coordination and new-type urbanization programs. In an ongoing research project based in Shenzhen, Smith is exploring the origins of Chinese planning and development practices in the 1980s.

CONFERENCES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

会议通告

Asian Geographer, now indexed in the Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI), is pleased to announce two-day symposium, “Highlighting Asian Geographies” during the AAG Annual Meeting in Washington D.C., which will be held from 3-7 April 2019. The symposium will be organized by the Asian Geography Specialty Group (AGSG) of AAG, and co-sponsored by Asian Geographer and The AAG International Research & Scholarly Exchange Committee (IRSEC). It will highlight Asia's importance in the 21st century, inter-regional connections within and outside Asia, and cross-disciplinary and cross-scalar approaches to understanding the region. The symposium will occur on two days (April 4 – Thursday and April 5 - Friday) of the 2019 AAG meeting in Washington DC, gathering sessions that focus on Asian geographies together in a specific area of the conference space. Paper sessions and illustrated paper sessions will be accompanied by a series of keynote lectures and panel sessions that attend to the pressing issues related to Asia's role in the world.

Co-hosted by Peking University—Lincoln Institute Center for Urban Development and Land Policy, College of Urban & Environmental Sciences, Peking University, the Department of Urban Planning and Design, The University of Hong Kong, and the Regional Science Association of China, the 2019 International Conference on China Urban Development will be held June 28-29, 2019, Beijing, China. The sponsoring academic journals include Urban Studies, International Journal of Urban and Regional Research, Area Development and Policy, and Urban Development Studies (Chinese journal). The theme of the conference is “Paradigm Shift to Quality Urbanization”. Now the conference calls for paper and the submission deadline is February 28, 2019.

For those who are interested in presenting a paper in the conference, please submit in English a draft paper or an extended abstract (roughly 300-500 words, stating the research question clearly and highlighting key results), name(s) of author(s), position(s), and affiliation(s) through email to 2019CUD@plc.pku.edu.cn, and cc to 2019CUD@gmail.com, indicating in the subject line of the email “paper submission for CUD2019”. Alternatively, you may submit your abstract or paper via the following QR code:
